

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. Preface.

—o—

ALDINGHAM Church, dedicated to St. Cuthbert, is situate about five miles due south of Ulverston and six miles slightly north-east of Barrow in Furness, on the very shore of Morecambe Bay, or perhaps more accurately, on the west bank of the mouth of the estuary of the river Leven.

Reference to the "parson" of Aldingham appears circa 1180-1199 [see Farrer, Lancashire Pipe Rolls, p. 361], and a Church doubtless existed long before that period.

The Registers here printed are four in number.

Volume I. consists of 49 leaves, 11½ inches by 7 inches, of what once was parchment.

It is at present preserved in single leaves within a large account book, and the substance of it has been compared to that of cigar-ash, so extremely frail has a long course of damp made it.

Volume II. consists of five leaves of parchment 11½ inches by 7½ inches in a paper cover.

Volume III. consists of 18 leaves of parchment, 13 inches by 8 inches, also in a paper cover.

Volume IV. consists of 15 leaves of paper, 12 inches by 8 inches in a most dilapidated condition, bound in a leather cover.

The Lancashire Parish Register Society will never have done a more useful work than the contemplated binding of these Registers.

The work of the Editor, Mr. H. S. Cowper, F.S.A., has been simply herculean, as the utmost skill and patience have had to be combined in order to transcribe the earliest volume without its crumbling to pieces. It is much to be regretted, both on Mr. Cowper's account and that of the Society, that his health has not permitted him to write the extended preface, with notes on the clergy, which his local knowledge and antiquarian scholarship could have made so interesting and instructive. Never has an Editor better deserved the gratitude of the Society.

The Episcopal Registers at Lancaster have, by the courtesy of Mr. W. H. Satterthwaite been consulted, and any variations noticed. To him and to the Revd. Dr. Wall, Rector of Aldingham, our best thanks are due, and, in fairness to the Rector it ought to be stated that since the Registers came into his custody every care has been taken for their preservation.

It may interest our subscribers to know that the eight lines of Poetry on page 60 are by Rev. W. Broome (1689-1745). They appear in a Poem entitled: "To Belinda, on her sickness and recovery."

The Registers of the Parish of Aldingham.

Vol. I.

All in loose leaves of Parchment 11½ × 7½ at time of Transcription.

It is contemplated to bind these loose leaves.

Note.—The earlier registers are arranged each year dating from the accession of the Monarch (i.e., Queen Elizabeth) from Nov: 1558. At the commencement of the Civil year—March—there is a line across the page, but no space and the date usually written in margin.

West says the Aldingham Register commences in 1538. See also Baines History of Lancashire IV., p. 644, and Roper's "Churches, Castles & Halls of North Lancashire," p. 108, who says "there are a few pages of marriages in 1539." (See my note at commencement of marriages.—Ed.)

(1) The form of entry changes here; and the day of the month is generally in Arabic numerals. (See note under 1601).

(2) "Floshe" is a place-name, but I know no such place in Aldingham.

(3) Entry added in another hand.

(4) "buyrye" query for "Bury" or "Brewer?"

(1) For William Curwen see note on the Rectors. The signatures are not well preserved. The writing of the Register to this date is all in Curwen's script.

(2) Handwriting changes here and becomes much poorer. What the full text of the line ending "Jacobi" is difficult to say. The next year 1603 is the first year of James. But the Queen died before midnight (I believe) on March 24, 1602, the last day of that year (old time). Therefore James was actually King in 1602, though the first day of his reign was March 25, 1603 (New Year's Day). But 1602 was a year of his reign

(1) Writing here changes and fairly good but different in style to Curwen's. The changes are puzzling. But 1601-2 in all sections seems in the same hand, and from 1603 onward to 1613 (Baptisms and Marriages) and 1610 Burials are in one hand different from 1601-2.

(2) "Gleaston" deleted, and "Rusbecke" written over.

(3) A word like "Chameb" [? Chambr] lined out, and "de Rusbeck" written over.

 The fourteen entries between asterisks are lined through in the Register. It will be seen that the first two reappear at the beginning of 1620, and the rest under 1622. The whole manuscript here is most careless, and apparently copied from rough notes, and only legible with difficulty. Arab numerals are generally used,*

—O—

Here end Baptisms in original Volume I.

Original Volume II.

Parchment leaves 12 × 7½ in modern paper cover.

Handwriting of 1636 and 1641-8 seems the same and is fairly good. 1637-40 seems mixed, with a good many flourishy entries. 1649-50 in one hand careful and flourishy. 1651-2 again changed.

Inside paper back in modern hand:—

“Shaw appears to have been the name of a rector of Aldingham in 1638. See first entry of that year.”

3. fo. 1a. Quite illegible.

The surface of this folio and great part of the next are destroyed by damp. On about half of each page the surface has scaled off. For part of the years 1655 and 1658 and all the years 1656-7, there is not a surname recoverable. The place names and dates alone are of no value. On folio 2 the names remain but not the dates. The entries on 1a appear to be

In coelos animam, tu, deus alme, cape.*

Thus when the silent grave becomes
Pregnant with life, as fruitful wombs,
When the wide seas & spacious earth,
Resign us to our second birth
Our moulder'd frames, rebuilt, assume
New glories & for ever bloom
And crown'd with youths immortal pride
We angels rise, who mortals dy'd.

(1) This mutilated entry perhaps records the burial of triplets, of which two were christened "John." It is however just possible the last name was "Johana." But see 1583 ante.

(2) "Spille"—"to destroy," see "Halliwell Dictionary of Archaic and Provincial words." In margin at bottom in a later hand: "And thou that art least among"

(1) There are some puzzling features about the beginning of these Marriage Registers. They are in Curwen's hand, and only the reign year is given. These run 30 Henry 8., 31, 32, 36, 37, 38, 1 Edward VI. There is no page missing, and it is difficult to say if it is a mistake of Curwen's, or if he only found these years when he made his transcript, and as he had not years 33, 34 and 35, he copied the years he had consecutively. I incline to this view. It will be noticed also that in year 31 the entries are incomplete. Marginal dates do not occur in the Register of Marriages till 31 Elizabeth.

OF CHRISTIAN NAMES AND SURNAMES.

—o—

BAPTISMS	pp.	1— 66.
BURIALS	"	67—107.
WEDDINGS	"	108—129.

—o—

Where a name has variants the Head-name has been selected which now exists or which most closely resembles the modern equivalent. All variants are separately Indexed with cross references to the Head-name.

Where a Surname has an alias each form of the Surname is Indexed under its initial letter.

The Christian names are, with some few exceptions, Indexed under their modern form, the first spelling of the name having generally been continued in connection with the same Surname.

Illegitimate Children are Indexed under the Surnames of both Mother and putative Father.

"N.X.N." signifies "No Christian Name."

An Asterisk following a page number signifies that that combination of Christian and Surname occurs more than once on the page number Asterisked.

Preface.

—o—

ALL lovers of the Lake District and enthusiasts about John Ruskin need scarcely be told where Coniston lies. The Church, situate about three quarters of a mile to the west of the head of Coniston Lake, has a parish which extends to the north boundary of Lancashire. Bishop Gastrell in his "Notitia Cestriensis" states that the Chapel of Coniston then in the ancient parish of Ulverston was consecrated in 1586, and as the earliest Register shows that in 1599 it was available for Marriages, this seems to afford evidence that it was then consecrated. The Registers here printed—three in number—are fully described in the printed Text. The paper volume, No. 2, is in a most dilapidated condition, and it is to be hoped that the Parochial Authorities may accept the offer of our Society to have it bound. Such Episcopal Transcripts as exist for the period of the Registers here printed have been examined at Lancaster, and no variations from the printed text have been discovered, and our thanks are due to Mr. W. H. Satterthwaite for his courtesy in permitting such examination. To the Vicar of Coniston, Rev. F. T. Wilcox, the Society's thanks are due for the facilities of transcription he has afforded

Volume II.

[The cover of this volume is made out of a parchment grant by William Fleyminge in the reign of Queen Elizabeth but in order to decipher it fully the Register would have to be pulled to pieces and possibly some of the text of the Register destroyed. The entries marked with an asterisk may be Burials.]

*N.B.—The Original Register III. has entries to 16 November 1760. The Volume is a paper one. Oddly enough a Parchment Duplicate exists which, as far as the Paper Volume has been copied, has been collated with it & any variations are noted in the printed Text after the words [in D]. This Parchment Volume however extends to 31 May 1807.*

Where a name has variants the Head-name has been selected which now exists or which most closely resembles the modern equivalent. All variants are separately Indexed with cross references to the Head-name.

Where a Surname has an alias each form of the Surname is Indexed under its initial letter.

The Christian names are, with some few exceptions, Indexed under their modern form, the first spelling of the name having generally been continued in connection with the same Surname.

Illegitimate Children are Indexed under the Surnames of both Mother and putative Father.

"N.X.N." signifies "No Christian Name."

An Asterisk following a page number signifies that that combination of Christian Name and Surname occurs more than once on the page number Asterisked.
